

Personal Inventory Locker: Step 1 Brainstorming A Topic That Is Right For You!

Let's see what makes you unique! Complete the following interest survey. Take the time to reflect on the prompts. Answer honestly and include as much information as possible. The completed inventory will help us get to know you as well as serve as your starting point toward selecting a meaningful research project.

Career and post high school plans:	Hobbies, sports and general interests:	School and extra-curricular involvement:
After graduation, I plan to...	When I am not in school, I spend my time...	Subjects in school, which I find interesting, are...
Fads/trends:	Global and/or community issues:	Artistic accomplishments:
Fads or trends that spark my interest are...	Issues I feel strongly about are...	I get inspired to create...
Volunteer or service learning opportunities:	Hot topics:	Power of change:
I donate or I'm willing to donate my time to...	Something that I recently heard/read which made me wonder was...	If I had the opportunity to change, develop, or improve on something, I would...